

MUSEUM OF COMPARATIVE ZOOLOGY

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

WETMORE COLLES GRANT APPLICATION

The Museum of Comparative Zoology (MCZ) awards funding to MCZ personnel to support publication-related activities, in furthering dissemination of research. Grants can be used to offset:

- Open-access charges for publications.
- Journal page charges associated with publications.
- Cost of color reproduction

Eligibility

MCZ faculty-curators, graduate students and postdoctoral fellows.

Terms & Conditions

- Funding for publications related to zoological research
- Up to $2,500 per publication
- All publications must acknowledge the Wetmore Colles Fund (e.g., “Published by a grant from the Wetmore Colles Fund.”)
- Funding must be requested in advance of publication. Post-publication requests for reimbursement will not be considered.

Application

Please complete this form and return to mczfunding@fas.harvard.edu, along with a copy of the open access fee policy or journal’s page charges (whichever applies).

Funding for: Open-access charges $ Journal page charges $

Name
Title (MCZ appointment)
Email
Authors
Publication title
Publication (e.g., journal title)
Publication date
Other funding to support article publication

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and will be reviewed by the Wetmore Colles Fund Committee. Decision will be announced within ten business days following receipt of application.